Buz and Ned's is in the BBQ business, not the rental business. We rent equipment to our catering customers at lower than market rates as a consideration to them.

We have a limited number of rental items so consequently this offer is subject to availability. Rental prices are based on return of equipment in like condition by customer to rental location by 5:00 p.m. the next business day following your event. This applies to pick-up orders as well as to deliveries. Equipment can be picked up for return by Buz and Ned's from your event site, however regular round trip delivery rates will apply.

Please call with any Catering Questions.
